

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT JENNIFER G. GREER

CMSgt Jennifer Greer is the Command Chief Master Sergeant of the 445th Airlift Wing, Wright-Patterson, Ohio. In this role, Chief Greer serves as the principal enlisted advisor to the Wing Commander on matters influencing the readiness, training, morale, and professional development of more than 2,000 Airmen. Chief Greer provides strategic counsel on enlisted force development, talent management, and organizational culture while ensuring the wing maintains combat-ready Citizen Airmen capable of executing global airlift, aeromedical, and agile combat support missions.

Chief Greer grew up in San Diego, California where she enlisted in the United States Air Force in April 2000. In December 2000, she graduated from the Engineering Apprentice Course at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. She served more than nine years on active duty before transferring into the Air Force Reserves. Chief Greer has held various leadership positions within the squadron to include Squadron Senior Enlisted Leader, Engineering Superintendent, and the Unit Deployment Manager. In 2017, she was given the opportunity to serve 9 months as the Superintendent for Exercise Mobility Guardian with the 62nd Airlift Wing, Joint Base Lewis-McChord, WA. Prior to her current position, Chief Greer was the Senior Enlisted Leader of the 446th Mission Support Group, Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington.

Chief Greer has deployed four times in support of Operation IRAQI FREEDOM, ENDURING FREEDOM, FREEDOMS SENTINEL, SPARTAN SHIELD and INHERENT RESOLVE. In her civilian capacity, she works within the Engineering Services Division for Directorate of Public Works, JBLM, Washington. She has worked for the Directorate of Public Works since 2009 and specifically has been part of the Utilities Branch for over 6 years overseeing the water, wastewater, and electrical privatization contracts for JBLM, Washington.
