

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL TIMOTHY D. WEST

Colonel Timothy D. West is the Deputy Director, Aerospace Systems Directorate, Air Force Research Laboratory, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, OH. In this capacity, he assists the director with leadership of the Air Force's science and technology program in propulsion, power and air vehicles for advanced next-generation space, missile and aircraft applications. The Aerospace Systems Directorate consists of a workforce of more than 1,800 military members, civilians, and contractors executing an annual budget in excess of $700 million and $4 billion in research facilities spread over 65 square miles at Wright-Patterson AFB, OH; Edwards AFB, Calif., and Arnold AFB, Tennessee.

Colonel West is a career acquisition officer with command experience in science & technology, test & evaluation, and program management organizations. He is a graduate of the USAF Test Pilot School and the Air War College, and a Distinguished Graduate of the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps and the Air Command and Staff College. He is a Senior Non-Rated Aircrew Member with over 450 flying hours in various military and civilian aircraft.

Colonel West graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1990 with a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering. He entered the Air Force in 1991 as a project engineer on the Titan IV Solid Rocket Motor Upgrade program at Norton AFB, CA. Colonel West next served as a program manager for multiple environmental restoration programs and wind tunnel test projects at Arnold Engineering Development Center, TN. In 1997, he was reassigned to Holloman Air Force Base, NM, where he conducted flight testing of air-to-air and air-to-ground weapons over White Sands Missile Range. In 1999, he was selected for the USAF Test Pilot School's Flight Test Engineer Course. Upon graduation, he was transferred to Eglin AFB, FL, where he led developmental flight testing of the AMRAAM and AIM-9X weapons. In 2003, he became a Program Element Monitor under the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition, Directorate of Special Programs, Washington D.C. In 2005 he attended the Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell AFB, AL. In 2006, Colonel West became the Operations Officer of the 46th Test Squadron at Eglin Air Force Base, FL, where he coordinated the operations of AFMC's largest and most diverse test squadron. In 2007, Colonel West assumed command of a cyber test squadron. In 2009, he assumed command of the 631st Electronic Systems Squadron, Hanscom AFB, MA, which was redesignated the Intelligence Systems Branch in 2010. In 2011, Colonel West deployed to the 386th Air Expeditionary Wing in Southwest Asia, where he served as the Director of Staff for a 2,000 person C-130 airlift wing. In 2011 he was selected to attend the Air War College at Maxwell AFB, AL. After graduation, Colonel West was assigned to Eglin Air Force Base, FL, where he served as Commander, Eglin Research Site and Deputy Director, Munitions Directorate, Air Force Research Laboratory. Colonel West came to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base from Arnold Air Force Base, TN, where he served as Senior Materiel Leader, Test Operations Division, Arnold Engineering Development Complex, from 2014 to 2018.

Colonel West and his wife, Johanna, have been happily married for nearly 30 years. They have two children. Their son, Morgan, age 26, is a computer engineer for a small firm in Columbus, OH. Their daughter, Meagan, age 23, is pursuing an undergraduate degree in computer engineering at Cedarville University.
