

Entitlements for Members Impacted by COVID19 as of 20 Mar 2020

If...	Then...	Entitlement Rates
ordered to remain in place at old permanent duty station (PDS); includes members no longer occupy permanent quarters and/or their household goods have been picked up.	The service members and their dependents may be authorized standard PCS allowances. The MPF will issue amendments to the PCS orders.	Member: $151 daily; Spouse: $113.25 daily; Child: \geq 12 yrs $113.25 or $<$ 12 yrs $75.50 daily; period of delay doesn't count against 10 days of Temporary Lodging Entitlement (TLE)
Dependents are restricted from travelling concurrently due to the 13 March 2020 travel restriction.	Dependents may be authorized standard PCS allowances. The MPF will issue amendments to the PCS orders. The dependents must remain in-place awaiting transportation.	Spouse: $151 daily; Child: \geq 12 yrs $113.25 or $<$ 12 yrs $75.50 daily; period of delay doesn't count against 10 days of Temporary Lodging Entitlement (TLE)
The service member was traveling on Permanent Change of Station (PCS) orders and during travel they were ordered to temporarily return to their last duty station.	The service member may be authorized standard PCS allowances or TDY allowances. The MPF will issue amendments to the PCS orders.	a) Member and their dependents are authorized TDY allowances if ordered to remain in place; b) if authorized to return to old PDS, the member and their dependents will be authorized standard PCS allowances.
Mbr arrived at new/assigned to (PDS) and was ordered by their command to restriction of movement for self-monitoring due to exposure or suspected exposure to COVID-19, and are directed to a facility neither provided by the U.S. Government nor is their personal residence at the member's PDS.	The unit's CSS will change the member's duty status code to 14. Commanders must submit an MFR stating the member has been directed to self-isolate at a facility neither provided by the U.S. Government nor is their personal residence at the member's PDS and they are required to pay for lodging.	Member is authorized $100 per day not to exceed $1,500 per month. Proof of lodging expense must be provided. Lodging with friends and family is not a reimbursable expense.