

Please call the Family Advocacy Program at (937) 257- 4608/6429 for more information regarding Family Advocacy Strength-Based Treatment.

FAST: Family Advocacy Strength-Based Therapy (F.A.S.T.). Marriage and family counseling for active duty members and their families.

- Goal is to prevent incidences of maltreatment and help families and couples work through problems.

- Documentation is kept in FAP only and not placed in a medical record.

