Wright-Patterson Air Force Base Family Advocacy Program

Helping Grow
Healthy Families/
Healthy Relationships

FAMILY ADVOCACY PROGRAM (FAP) MISSION

The mission of FAP is to build healthy Air Force Communities by developing, implementing, and evaluating policies and programs designed to prevent, intervene in, and treat child and intimate partner maltreatment.

GOALS

FAP—builds healthy Air Force families and communities through prevention, treatment, and research. FAP seeks first to prevent family violence, and provides treatment to bring families back into balance. FAP also supports research efforts that include collecting, analyzing and reporting data to assess FAP effectiveness and determine the best clinical practice.

PROGRAMS OFFERED

- Outreach Program: provides briefings and trainings for all base personnel on all forms of family and child maltreatment prevention. Provides information and referrals to on and off base communities. Offers a variety of prevention classes such as Conflict Resolution, Marriage Enrichment, Couples Communication and Parenting Classes.
- Family Advocacy Safety Education Seminar (FASES)
- Maltreatment Program
- Family Advocacy Strength Based Therapy (FAST)
- New Parent Support Program
- Victim Advocacy Program: Offers safety planning for victims of domestic violence. Also provides resources and referrals, legal support, case management and support for victims in a variety of situations.

Request FAP to brief any of our programs at your next Commander's Call! The Outreach Manager will come to you.
